 Landmark Arts Gallery, School of Art, Lubbock, TX. October 18th 2008- December 13th 2008. I selected 51 pieces from 28 artists for this exhibition. Preparation for this exhibition began two years in advance. Landmark Arts Gallery produced a fantastic fifteen-page color catalog entitled “Content in Contemporary Jewelry Design and Metalsmithing”. Within the catalog, there is the curator’s statement, an essay by Kate Bonansinga, Gallery curator at University of Texas at El Paso, entitled “Craft and Social Change”, and an essay by Constance Cortez, PhD, professor of Art History at Texas Tech University, entitled “Content in Contemporary Jewelry Design and Metalsmithing”. This catalog was designed by Frank Tierney, Associate Professor of Communication Design at Texas Tech University. There are eighteen color plates within this catalog. This catalog was mailed to well over 500 institutions that support jewelry design and Metalsmithing.
Content in Contemporary Jewelry Design and Metalsmithing Symposium. The symposium, exhibition opening, reception, and tour of the new facility took place on Saturday, October 18th, 2008. 1990-present Jewelry Design and Metalsmithing Club Advisor

I oversee the club activities that include: the Annual Jewelry Design and Metalsmithing Student Exhibition, fund raising activities, and the Visiting Artist Program that brings nationally recognized metals artists to the Texas Tech campus for lectures and workshops. Student Organizational funding has steadily climbed from $750.00 in 1990 to $1782.00 in the current funding cycle. In 2008 for the Contemporary Jewelry Design and Metalsmithing Symposium, Two of the four visiting artists for this event were sponsored by the Metals Club, Keith Lewis from Central Washington University, and Pat Nelson from Ball State University in Indiana. The Metals Club has brought to campus a wide variety of visiting fine craft artists: Gary Griffin, Cranbrook Academy of Art and Design and Billie Theide, University of Illinois at Champaign Urbana, Kiff Slemmons, Seattle, Washington, Marilyn da Silva, California College of Arts and Crafts, Richard Mawdsley from Southern Illinois University, Randy Long from Indiana University, Beverly Penn from Southwest Texas State, Val Link from the University of Houston, Sandy Zilker from the Glassel School of Art, Houston, Thelma Coles from University of Texas at Austin, James Watkins of Lubbock Texas, Marjorie Schick from Pittsburg State University, Pittsburg, Kansas, Chris Ramsay from Oklahoma State University, Helen Shirk from San Diego State University, Tim McCreight from University of Portland, Portland, Maine, Jamie Bennett from SUNY at New Paltz, and Joanne Rapp owner of The Hand And The Spirit Gallery of Scottsdale, Arizona.
